

AirdrieLIFE invites you to

WeddingLIFE 2010

In the spring issue of AirdrieLIFE, our writers are asking the question – can Airdrie residents find all of the services and products for their wedding without leaving town? We think the answer is yes and your business is invited to be the guest of honour as we celebrate our local wedding industry.

This special section within AirdrieLIFE features editorial on bridal fashions, trends and planning. As a featured advertiser you are entitled to additional advertorial based on ad size. If you sell wedding fashions, accessories, flowers, hair and beauty services/products, venues, rentals, catering and entertainment, this is the ultimate medium to promote your business.

RSVP now to guarantee your spot on the guest list!
